

RESOLUTION
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
CORPORATION FOR PUBLIC BROADCASTING
WASHINGTON, D.C.

unanimously

Resolved,

That the Board of Directors

of the

Corporation for Public Broadcasting

Expresses its Heartfelt Condolences to the Family, Friends and Colleagues of

Gwen Ifill

Moderator and Managing Editor, Washington Week in Review, 1999-2016

Co-Anchor and Managing Editor, PBS NewsHour, 2013-2016

We will long remember with gratitude Gwen's years of service in journalism and devotion to public broadcasting.

Gwen distinguished herself as one of the country's most astute reporters and political commentators. In her 17 years on Washington Week in Review, she led robust roundtable discussions with award-winning journalists reporting and analyzing the major stories emanating from the nation's capital. Among numerous career accomplishments, she won acclaim for her in-depth coverage of seven presidential campaigns and moderation of two vice presidential debates. In 2013, she and Judy Woodruff became the first all-female team to anchor a network TV news show.

We extend our condolences to Gwen's family, friends and colleagues at PBS NewsHour, Washington Week, and WETA.
